WEDDING SERVICES CONTRACT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. The artist is the exclusive photographer at the wedding and reserves the right to ask anyone else taking pictures cease and desist.
2. If the balance of fees due fourteen days (14) prior to the event is not received by that date, this contract shall be deemed terminated by the client and the artist shall have no further obligations under this contract.
3. If the contract is terminated as above and the artist determines to reinstate the contract, and to accept late payment, which payment must be made prior to any photographs being taken, and must be in the form of a certified cashiers check, such payment shall include a $35.00 late charge.
4. The artist retains copyright of all images. The artist reserves the right to use images for display, publication, or other purposes.
5. The retainer payment due upon acceptance of the contract is non-refundable, and will be retained by the artist if the wedding is cancelled or rescheduled. If the wedding is rescheduled within six months, which rescheduling is subject to the artists availability and any applicable price increase for the services described in this contract, the retainer will be applied to the rescheduled wedding.
6. The artist's liability for nonperformance of this contract, regardless of fault, is limited to the amount of funds paid by the client pursuant to this contract.
7. Because the price of each package is determined in part by the amount of time the artist will spend at the wedding, the time and place specified in this contract must be strictly observed. If, due to no fault of the artist, the artist stays overtime to complete the photographs promised in the package, the client agrees to pay for overtime at the rate determined by the chosen wedding package. If the client refuses to pay for such overtime, the client understands and agrees that the client may not receive the full number of pictures that would otherwise be included in the package.
8. The client is responsible for insuring that all individuals being photographed are present and cooperative.
9. Prices for prints and rescheduled services are subject to change without notice.
10. These terms and conditions may not be changed.
